IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

Mrs. Bryce Entertains at the British Embassy.

MEET SECRETARIES' WIVES

Mrs. James and Mrs. Young Honor Guests at Charming Tea—Miss Theodora Shonts Entertained at Dinner by the de Martels, of the French Embassy—Society News.

The British Embassy was the scene of a charming tea yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Bryce, wife of the Ambassador, inviting about a hundred guests to meet the wives of the two recently arrived secretaries, Mrs. James and Mrs. Young.

Lieut. Col. James, the military attaché, arrived late in the spring and was not joined by Mrs. James until later, on the eve of departure of the Embassy staff for Intervale, N. H., for the summer.

Mr. George Young and his wife have but recently arrived here this fall, so that neither lady has had an opportunity of meeting the social set of the Capital. All the ambassadors and their wives were invited, as were the ministers and charge d'affaires, and the ladies of their families, as well as the younger element in the corps, and the younger set of official and residential society of the Capital, as both Mrs. James and Mrs. Young are young women.

Among the guests were the Austro-Hungarian Ambassador and the Baroness Hengelmüller, who has just returned from a short trip to New York, and who is looking remarkably well after her summer sojourn abroad. Also the French Ambassador and Mme. Jefferand were present, the Baroness Speck von Staerburg, wife of the German Ambassador; the Brazilian Ambassador and Mme. Nabuco; the Russian Ambassador, Baron Rosen; the Japanese Ambassador and the Viscountess Aoki; the Mexican Ambassador and Mme. Crow; the Italian Charge d'affaires, Signor Montagna; the Danish Minister, Mr. Brum; the Belgian Minister, and the Baroness Moncheur, and the Spanish Charge and Mme. Pastor.

The Vicomte and Vicomtesse de Martel, of the French Embassy, were hosts at a dinner last night at their home in N street, entertaining Miss Theodora Shonts, whose engagement to the Duc de Chaulnes, of Paris, has just been announced. Mlle. Guilmette des Portes, daughter of the commander of the French Embassy; Miss Isabelle May, Miss Squires, Prince au Lys, of the German Embassy; M. Szent-Ivany, of the Austro-Hungarian Embassy; Signor Cora, of the Italian Embassy, and Mr. Henry May, Jr.

Signor Montagna, Italian Charge d'affaires, will go to New York to-morrow, to meet his chief, the Italian Ambassador, and the Baroness Mayer des Planches, who will come directly to Washington on landing in New York Thursday.

Baron Franz von Preuschen, the newly-arrived naval attaché of the Austro-Hungarian Embassy, who, with the Baroness von Preuschen, arrived in New York the end of last week, has been taken ill on his way here, and has stopped in Philadelphia. The physicians are undecided whether the malady is grip or typhoid fever.

Lieut. Col. Pederneras, military attaché of the Brazilian Embassy, will leave here next month for Europe, where he will join Mme. Pederneras in Paris. After a trip to Germany in the interests of the smokeless powder manufactory Brazil is building, Col. and Mme. Pederneras will go to Brazil.

The Austro-Hungarian Ambassador and the Baroness Hengelmüller will have as their guest for two months this winter Miss Audrey Pauncefote, daughter of the late Sir Julian Pauncefote, British Ambassador here some years ago.

The Brazilian Ambassador, and Mme. Nabuco, have invitations out for a dinner at the embassy Sunday evening, for the new Chilean Minister and Mme. Cruz Diaz.

The Japanese Ambassador and Viscountess Aoki entertained informally last evening at a dinner of twelve covers, given complimentary to the Japanese Consul General at New York, and Mme. Koyko, who are spending some time in Washington en route to San Francisco, where they expect to visit.

Admiral and Mrs. Devey were hosts at a dinner last evening given in honor of the Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Metcalf.

Mrs. Root, wife of the Secretary of State, and her daughter, Miss Edith Root, received yesterday afternoon at their home in Scott circle a few friends, who came to view the beautiful collection of presents sent this very popular girl of the Cabinet circle.

The President and Mrs. Roosevelt were the first to see them, they having called at the Root home last Sunday. Since then a few friends have dropped in informally each day to see the collection.

Lieut. Ulysses S. Grant III and his mother arrived here Monday afternoon and were joined in the evening by Gen. Grant. They are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John R. McLean, at their country place, Friendship.

The general and Mrs. Grant will return to New York to-day after the wedding of their son and Miss Root.

Mrs. Potter Palmer and her son, Potter Palmer, Jr., who will be best man at his cousin, Lieut. Grant, are stopping with Mrs. E. H. Slater at her home in Eighteenth street.

Miss Sadie Murray, debutante daughter of Gen. and Mrs. Arthur Murray, was hostess at a luncheon yesterday to Miss Juliette Williams, daughter of Col. and Mrs. John R. Williams, a debutante of last season. Invited to meet Miss Williams were the Misses Esther Denny, Louise Chase, Evelyn Chew, Caryl Crawford, Stephanie Trescott, Sallie Garlington, Olga Converse, and Sallie Schroeder.

Mme. Chermont, wife of the Second Secretary of the Brazilian Embassy, accompanied by her sister, Miss Sloan, of Baltimore, has gone to New York.

Congressman and Mrs. Washburn have taken for the season Gen. Upshur's home in Rhode Island avenue.

An interesting event of to-day will be the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Masterson Leech, daughter of the late Edward Leech, to Mr. Millard Farrar West, formerly of Kentucky, now residing in Washington. The ceremony will be performed at noon at the residence of Senator Thomas H. Carter and Mrs. Carter, in Sixth street, Rev. Herbert Scott Smith officiating. A few intimate friends have been asked to supplement the family party to be present at the ceremony, and Senator Carter, who was a friend of the bride's father, will give her hand in marriage.

The services will be read at an improvised altar of white satin, which will be backed with palms starred with white chrysanthemums. The wedding gown will be of white satin crepe, fashioned on modern lines and trimmed with duchesse lace. A coronet of duchesse lace will secure the lace bridal veil to the hair, and the wedding bouquet will be a shower of lilies of the valley and bride roses. Mr. Louis West will be his brother's best man and the only attendant of the couple.

Mrs. Carter will receive her guests in a gown of violet cloth, and Mrs. E. A. Clark, sister-in-law of the bride, who was also in the wedding party, wore a cafe-au-lait gown of chiffon. After an informal collation Mr. and Mrs. West will leave Washington for a wedding trip. Mrs. West wearing a suit of dark blue broadcloth trimmed with ribbon and wings of blended dunes of blue. Upon their return to Washington they will take up their residence at 1515 Calvert street.

The marriage of Miss Anita Stauffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stauffer, to Mr. John Henry McIlhenny, of the Civil Service Commission, will take place at the St. Louis Cathedral, New Orleans, at 4:30 o'clock next Saturday afternoon. The wedding of Miss Stauffer and Mr. McIlhenny will be one of the most prominent of the Southern weddings this fall and is of widespread interest socially. Society will be largely represented at the church and later at the Stauffers' home in Jackson avenue, where a wedding reception will be held after the ceremony from 5:30 to 7:30. Mr. and Mrs. Stauffer will give a dinner to the large bridal party which will attend their daughter to-morrow night at their home.

Rear Admiral Stephen Band, U. S. N., and Mrs. Band have returned from an extended European trip, and are now at the Ebbitt House.

Dr. William Dulaney Munroe, formerly of Georgetown, is established in his apartment at the Farragut.

Miss M. Edna Dyer and Fred T. Gary were married yesterday afternoon at 3:30 in their newly furnished home, at 3012 R street northwest. The Rev. Thomas C. Clark, D. D., pastor of the Takoma Park Presbyterian Church, officiating.

The bride wore a handsomely embroidered gown of batiste over silk, and carried a bouquet of violets.

The maid of honor, Miss Grace Welch, wore a gown of blue silk and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

The marriage took place in the presence of the relatives only. The young couple will reside at 3012 R street after their bridal trip.

Lawrence W. Gary, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. Both of the young people are residents of Takoma Park.

Mrs. Julia Hewlett, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. John R. Williams, of the Connecticut, returned to her home in St. Louis yesterday.

Mrs. Charles Ashmead Schaeffer announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Gertrude King Schuyler, to Dr. John Dunlop.

Miss Frances Lipscomb left yesterday for Annapolis, Md., to attend the hop Thanksgiving eve, and also to be present at the West Point-Annapolis football game Thursday. Miss Lipscomb will spend a week with friends in Philadelphia before returning to Washington.

An unique masquerade, entitled "An Evening in Bingleville," was given by Mr. and Mrs. Leo F. Zwissler, at their home, 214 Ninth street southwest, Monday evening. The parlors were beautifully decorated and arranged to represent a typical country village, and the costumes were in accord with the occasion. Dancing and games were enjoyed until a late hour.

The Sisters of St. Francis and the ladies of the board of managers of the Georgetown University Hospital will receive their friends at the hospital Thanksgiving Day from 3 to 6 o'clock.

Mrs. James A. Bayard and her daughter, Miss Anne Francis Bayard, have returned to their home from a visit to Wilmington, Del. Miss Bayard will make her debut in December.

Miss Rebecca Porter, daughter of Mrs. Alexandria Porter, of Nashville, Tenn., is the guest for the Thanksgiving holidays of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haywood Glassie at their residence in Columbia Road.

Mrs. William Conard will leave this city for New York this morning. Mrs. Conard will sail for Panama November 30, to join her son, Lieut. Conard.
